ANNALS OF CRIME.

Evidently murdered for money which he carried on his person, the body of H. F. Zachario was found in the loft of a barn in the outskirts of Roanoke, Va., yesterday. There was a wedge-shaped wound in his head. A negro with whom Zachario had quarreled is missing. Zachario was about 50 years old. He wore two pairs of trousers, and when the police stripped the body they found $612 sewed up in secret pockets in the legs of the under pair. It was believed that he carried quite a sum also in his outer pockets, and that this was secured by his slayer. He lived alone in a small house, and was heard to say recently that he would not have to work much longer, as he was going to buy a farm and pay the cash for it.

The woman shot by Charles W. Rigdon in Chicago Friday afternoon just before Rigdon died from a bullet wound, said to have been self-inflicted, was identified as Mrs. Anna Theresa Young, estranged wife of Alexander Young, a Philadelphia lawyer. Mrs. Young's sister, who was with Mrs. Young at the time the shooting occurred, and who has masqueraded as "Miss Mary Wilson" since then, is Miss Mary Turner. Miss Turner until recently lived in Washington, D. C. The mother of the two women is Mrs. Oscar Turner, formerly of Washington, D. C. Jealousy, Mrs. Young declared, caused the shooting. A double tragedy shocked the people of Oxford, N. C., yesterday when Otis Brown, the youngest son of the late J. S. Brown, in a fury of rage, shot his stepmother and then killed himself. The stepmother had refused to give him money.

Mrs. Brown may recover from her wound. J. S. Brown died several years ago, and left an estate valued at $40,000 to Mrs. Brown during her life time. She had been generous in advancing money to young Otis Brown, who was just over 21. Having advanced him $1,000 recently, she was slow to grant the demand he made yesterday and the tragedy followed.

The man who was murdered near Romney, W. Va., on Saturday last, has been identified as J. W. Blake, aged 34 years, unmarried and formerly a resident of Merceburg, Pa. Several months ago, George Fletcher and his family, consisting of a wife and three children, moved from Merceburg to one of the fruit orchards three miles west of Romney. Fletcher stated that he moved his family from the Pennsylvania town to get rid of Blake, who was paying attentions to his wife in the latter place. After Blake found the Fletcher family near Romney, he persuaded them to take him as a boarder.

It is alleged that trouble in the family was of frequent occurrence because of Blake's attentions to Mrs. Fletcher. On Friday night last the trouble started afresh, lasting until 4 o'clock in the morning, and ending by Fletcher ordering Blake from the house. Blake had been drinking. He became abusive, knocked Mrs. Fletcher down and threatened to shoot Fletcher got his shotgun and fired, killing Blake. Fletcher is under arrest.

Albert Sprague, aged 37, a farmer, was murdered in bed Sunday night while asleep with his wife and two children at his home near Greenburg, Ind., Mrs. Sprague says that she was awakened about midnight by the report of a shot, and called her husband. Receiving no answer she reached over to shake him and found him dead. She called Ben Noble, a farm employee, who occupied an upstairs room, but for a time he did not answer, and she went to the kitchen where she found her husband's shotgun in its accustomed place, but warm and smoking. She finally got Noble to assist her in the neighbors. Noble was arrested.

While remonstrating with a group of seven foreigners who were fighting in front of his home in McKees Rocks, Pa., during Sunday night, Negro Botnar, 44 years old, was shot dead by one of the men. Botnar's wife and five children were witnesses of the slaying, and his 11-year-old son Peter played a hero by dashing at top speed after the fleeing foreigners, causing the arrest of two of them.

Carl J. Cly, aged 25 shot, and killed his wife, Alice Donaldson Heckert Cly, aged 27, in Columbus, Ohio, yesterday, and then shot himself through the right lung. Mrs. Cly is said to have formerly lived in Philadelphia. Jealousy is the alleged cause of the shooting.

THIEF MASQUERADES.

Masquerading as a woman, Jerry Newman was said to have succeeded in robbing Omaha, Neb., residences of more than $5,000 worth of property within the past two weeks. Newman, however, met his Waterloo at the home of Frank J. Bradley, where he was detected in the act of stealing a pocket-book containing $50. As an applicant for work, dressed as a neat-appearing woman, Newman would call at the homes of well-to-do families, have an interview with the woman of the house, make a survey of the surroundings, locate the valuables and the following night return and do the robbing. At Newman's room were found all manner of disguises, such as wearing apparel, wigs, false hair and dresses. In the same room, in trunks, was found a large quantity of jewelry, silverware and other kinds of plunder.

LARGE APPLE CROP.

Buyers for commission houses in New York, Chicago, Boston, Philadelphia and other large distributing centers traveling in the northwestern and Pacific states estimate that 15,000 cars of from 9,500,000 to 10,000,000 boxes of apples suitable for eastern markets will be shipped from orchards in Washington, California, Colorado, Oregon, Idaho, Montana and Utah this season. It is also estimated that between three and four thousand cars will be required to supply the domestic and European trade. The market value of the crop in the several states is placed at from $27,000,000 to $29,000,000 at present prices.

A dispatch from Puerto Plata, Santo Domingo, says the disappearance of Dominican children near the Haitian frontier has been explained by the confession of a Haitian woman that she murdered them, eating four. This African cannibal practice is prevalent in Haiti.

Winter Homes Folder, Season 1910-1911

It is suggested that any of our readers who desire to entertain boarders for the ensuing winter months furnish Mr. L. S. Brown, General Agent, Southern Railway, 705 Fifteenth street northwest, Washington, D. C., immediate information as to name of resort, postoffice address, at or near what station, what distance from station, conveyance from station to house, number of guests, terms per day, week and month. We all would be pleased to see the country full of boarders next winter and would be glad if this notice will induce increased number of persons who will accommodate them for the coming winter months. This information should reach Mr. Brown not later than August 1, as the folder goes to press on August 3, and any requests received later than the 1st will not be able to be inserted.
